

PRESS RELEASE

December 18, 2006

Bold Strokes Books is proud to announce that Sweet Creek by Lee Lynch has been named by Richard Labonte to the Book Marks Top Ten Fiction list for 2006 (Q Syndicate, December 2006).

ISBN: 1-933110-29-5 15.95

Sweet Creek is a story of love, community, and the changing tides of time set in a town where trannies, lesbian cops, aging gay hippies, womyn's landers and rural couples come in search of a lesbian paradise .

Veteran author Lee Lynch is back and writing of lesbian lives as only she can. In this poignant, funny, romantic romp, young and old, butch and femme, gay and straight, discover that there is a place where dreams come true.

Buy Now From:

Purchase direct from: www.BellaBooks.com or www.scp-inc.biz or your local bookstore. Distributors: see the Sales page at www.boldstrokesbooks.com.

2006 Book Marks Top 10 Fiction Titles

The Last Time I Saw You, by Rebecca Brown (City Lights)

Winkie, by Clifford Chase (Grove Atlantic)

A Scarecrow's Bible, by Martin Hyatt (Suspect Thoughts Press)

My Lucky Star, by Joe Keenan (Little, Brown)

Sweet Creek, By Lee Lynch (Bold Strokes Books)

The Good Neighbor, by Jay Quinn (Alyson Books)

Now is the Hour, by Tom Spanbauer (Houghton Mifflin)

Rose of No Man's Land, by Michelle Tea (MacAdam/Cage)

The Night Watch, by Sarah Waters (Riverhead)

What I Did Wrong, by John Weir (Viking Press)

-Richard Labonte has been reading, editing, selling, and writing about queer literature since the mid-'70s. He can be reached at BookMarks@qsyndicate.com.