

Book Review: February 2008

by RLYnne (reviewer at JAW)

Fully Involved

Erin Dutton

ISBN: 978-1-933110-99-8

Trade paper, 240, $15.95

December 2007

Lesbian Romance

Bold Strokes Books, Inc.

www.boldstrokesbooks.com

Just About Write

Web site:

www.justaboutwrite.com

Nann Dunne
Editor-in-Chief
& Publisher

Set in Nashville, Fully Involved starts with a bang as fire engines race toward a fire at the downtown Hilton Hotel. Reid Webb and her partner, Jimmy Grant, have been best friends since childhood. Now, on the first engine to arrive, they dash into the hotel to find a child trapped on the third floor. Even as their captain radios them to withdraw, they look in one more spot and find the child. This exciting rescue costs Jimmy his life.

Dutton literally fills the pages with smoke as she vividly describes the scene. She is equally skilled at showing her readers Reid's feelings of guilt and rage at the loss of her best friend. Jimmy left behind a seven-year-old son, Chase. Reid knows she must be there for Chase, even as she is dealing with her own grief.

Isabel Grant, Jimmy's younger sister, is now Chase's legal guardian. Isabel has long resented the closeness of Reid to her brother. Now she must live in Jimmy's house, next door to Reid, and interact with her.

Fully Involved explores the emotional depths of these two very different women. Each woman struggles with loss, change, and the magnetic attraction they have for each other. Their relationship sizzles, flames, and ignites with a page-turning intensity. This is an exciting read about two very intriguing women.

Reprinted with permission.

Order from these Distributors:

CDS.....800 343-4499 Baker & Taylor.....800 775-1100
Ingram.....800 937-8000 Bookazine....800 548-3855

Direct from BellaDistribution
800 533-1973